

Promoting Youth Employability and Rights Conference

*Tuesday 21st February 2012, 09:30—15:30
STUC Centre, Glasgow. Free of charge.*

A partnership conference between BEMIS, the Scottish Refugee Council, the Scottish Trades Union Congress / One Workplace Equal Rights (STUC), the Council for Ethnic Minority Voluntary Sector Organisations (CEMVO) Scotland, and the Scottish Inter Faith Council (SIFC) with the following aims:

- Raise awareness of employability opportunities, equality and rights for youth and potential employers
- Provide a platform to address gaps in support of youth employment
- Empower and present new opportunities in education, skills and build links with different sectors and industry in employment and help youth to exercise their right in breaking barriers and discrimination in the job market
- Seek to develop recommendations on supporting youth employment as well as engaging potential employers with regards to opportunities and responsibilities

We will have excellent speakers from the Government and various sectors. A full programme will be available mid January 2012.

To register interest in attending, please send the following details to:

conference@bemis.org.uk

Or contact:

Tanveer Parnez, BEMIS, Centrum Building, 38 Queen Street, Glasgow G1 3DX
0141 548 8047 / Fax: 0141 548 8284

Name:

Organisation:

Email:

Tel: